
Electrics and Electronics

Our team of certified electricians have extensive experience in this industry and can provide dockside assistance in many areas:

Cathodic protection

Hull and corrosion survey for all classes of vessel, testing of anodes and earth leakage problems.

Computerised Engraving

Engraving made to order including trefolite and brass tallies.

Generators and Switchboards

Survey, repairs to all ships' generators and switchboards comprising of either single or three phase to switchboards as required.

Motors, Pumps and Starters

Survey, repairs and installation of all types of motors, pumps and starters comprising of single or three phase.

Radar, Communication and Navigational Equipment

Consultancy, design, specification, supply, installation, repairs and commissioning for all major systems and brands.

Wiring Installations

Survey, repairs and installation of all AC/DC and data wiring, compliant to all survey requirements.

Electrical Survey

The testing of all circuits for ships' class re-certification.

Internet / Wireless Connections

Assist with the connection of internet / wireless to your vessel